SUNDAY,......................SEPT. 5, 1875.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Nothing in our reports indicate a necessity for a change in the statement made yesterday morning that the Democrats have carried the State by 15,000 majority.

The contest between Larkin and Page for Congressman in the Second District is yet undecided, though the chances are in favor of Page, Republican.

D. O. Mills authorizes the statement that Ralston was a defaulter to the Bank of California to the amount of two or three million dollars.

The direct cable across the Atlantic has been mended.

It is not yet known whether Clayton or Bryant is elected Mayor of San Francisco, though the chances are in favor of Bryant, regular Democratic nominee.

In this county there is no change from yesterday's report. The Democrats elect everything but Treasurer.

The U. S. Treasury is still transferring coin from the East to San Francisco.

Creed Haymond is elected State Senator from Sacramento county by five majority.

The stock market is beginning to revive in San Francisco.

Michael Reese, of San Francisco, now supports the theory that Ralston was accidentally drowned.

A vessel is reported wrecked off Yorktown, Virginia.

Wm. Pallmer, one of the proprietors of the Central Hotel, at Long Branch, died on Friday night of paralysis.

Lewis M. Garthwait was killed by the Pennsylvania Railroad near Elizabeth, New Jersey, on Friday night.

THE steady advance of gold in the East is ominous. Money is evidently not so plenty as desirable in New York and we apprehend it will grow still less plenty in the next sixty days.

A rejoicing Democrat describes the political fight of last Wednesday as follows:

We charged upon a flock of geese,
And put them all to flight,
Except one sturdy gander
Who swore that he would fight.

THE following is the closing paragraph of the Associated Press dispatch to the Bulletin dated Los Angeles September 2nd:

> The contest is close for Sheriff, with three candidates in the field. Irwin will probably carry this county by a small majority. The Independents are confident of their assemblymen, and about half their county ticket is elected.

ROBERT BROWNING has written a poem on the effect produced on the mind by the sudden loss of fortune. We doubt if he has handled the subject properly. That poem should have been written by a man who loaded up with California at $800 and saw it drop to $40.

THE Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph line has done a fine business since it reached this city. On the first of this month the office here transmitted ninety-three messages and sent and received eight thousand words of news report for the HERALD and Express, the San Bernardino Guardian and Argus and the Anaheim Gazette. All this work was done by two men. The business of the office averages three hundred dollars per week. This is a flattering appreciation of low rates and prompt dispatch. The people of Southern California have reason to rejoice at their release from the meshes of that grasping old monopoly, the Western Union, which prior to the opening of the opposition kept up the rates and furnished dispatches as often behind as ahead of the railroad and stage.

Their Object.

Since the day on which the Bank of California closed its doors the, Associated Press or the Western Union Telegraph Company, which is the same thing, have been sending to the East the grossest mistatements concerning the financial affairs of San Francisco and the Pacific coast. These reports were intended to mislead the uninformed and convey the impression that California was on the verge of bankruptcy. We do not know that any one has attempted to fathom the motive of the Western Union in its persistant efforts to depress our commercial interests, but it has a motive and a very strong one—as strong as that which prompts a drowning man to catch at straws—which we will endeavor to uncover so that it will appear plain to our readers. It is well known that a few weeks ago a half a dozen wealtny men of San Francisco associated themselves together for the pnrpose of constructing a net work of telegraph wires all over the United States. The Western Union is heavily indebted and the caryingout of the design of Messrs. COHEN & Co., will bankrupt the concern within less than one year. To prevent the building of the new lines, the Western Union managers will resort to anything and the financial troubles which commenced with the supervision of the Bank of California gave them a cue. They thought that if they could destroy the credit of San Francisco's moneyed men in the East they would stave off for a time the construction of the competing lines of telegraph. This is the incentive which has prompted the tissue of falsehoods concerning the financial business of San Francisco which the Associated Press agents have sent to the journals of the East.

What the People Demand.

The people overthrew the Democratic party when it forgot the true principles of Democracy and become, in the hands of a few, a power to oppress the many. Its successor was the Republican party—the offspring of a "higher law" doctrine which patriotic impulse suddenly expanded to gigantic proportions. The new party to which the people transferred their trust and confidence was an exotic production and reached in 12 years what it took the old Democratic party fifty years to attain—the zenith of its power. Its decline was even more rapid than its ascent and within three short years this great organization dwindled from dimensions that were indeed colossal to the merest pigmy. It had grown so corrupt that even the cohesive power which holds together the accumulators of unlawful wealth, could no longer hold the tainted mass intact. The people saw that this party so young in years and so old in vice and corruption must be taught the lesson which but a short time before had been taught the Democratic party and soon we began to hear of Republican defeat. In this State the masses were not yet willing to accept the protestations of the Democratic party that it had returned to first principles and was cleansed and purified. They proposed that it should do penance yet a while longer and the Independent party sprang into existence. This was a hot-house product that grew with the rapidity of Jack's bean stalk. Like a mushroom it attained its full proportions in a night and like that fungus it wilted and withered beneath the early rays of the morning sun. It could not bear prosperity and its first success was the rock on which it foundered. From the moment of its first trial the fate of the Independent party was sealed. It proved itself wanting in every element and principle necessary to popularity with the people. The masses saw that once more they had been deceived—that their faith had not been well founded and that they must look elsewhere for a party that would recognize the people as the true sovereigns of the land. The Republican party was still groveling in the sloughs of corruption and treading the slimy backways of fraud and peculation. It gave no signs of contrition and reform and the people turned once more the old Democratic party—the party that had controlled the country from its infancy to manhood and had guided the nation from insignificance to the proud position of the first republic of the world. California is Democratic—Democratic from Governor to Constable. The old party is once more in power, and her standard bearer holds the helm. Where will he guide us? That is the question the people are asking. With the lessons of the past before him; with the wreck marked rocks clearly defined and the broad open sea stretching out before him, Governor IRWIN will prove himself a blind navigator, indeed, if he does not steer clear of the reefs and shoals that have proved so disastrous to the Republican aud Independent parties. The people of California have placed the Democratic party on probation. They have elevated it to power with feelings of doubt and distrust, and it depends on the newly elected officers whether or not these feelings shall give way to those of confidence and security. The people expect honest and economical government; they expect such legislation as will secure the greatest good to the greatest number, and unless these expectations are realized the great majority of last Wednesday will melt away like wax before the flame.

The Next Confflict.

Whether we believe with old HOBBES that war is the natural condition of the human race or not, so blood stained are the pages of history that we are certainly warranted in the midst of peace to anticipate an early commencement of hostilities, The Carlist war in Spain is now the only cloud that appears in the heavens and that is fast disappearing. The Temple of Janus cannot remain closed. Where will the work of death next commence on a grand scale? In the Unit d States the rapid abliteration of sectional animosity render a renewal of the struggle between the North and South improbable under any circumstances. There is no power in this continent with which we are likely to have any serious dispute unless it be Mexico, the lawless condition of whose border population is constantly engendering bad blood between the inhabitants of the two countries. Indeed it looked propable for a time that the administration at Washing comtemplated a Mexican war as a means of diverting the popular mind from politics, and for the conquest of additional territory from which to manufacture carpet-bag States to maintain the supremancy of the Radical party. We are certainly not among those who believe in the pacific intentions of ULYSSUS S. GRANT and seriously doubt whether he will peacefully surrender the power he holds, particularly if his successor, be a straight out Democrat; but the change in public sentiment has been so rapid that we are inclined to think his chances of embroiling the country in a war with any country are very slim. A struggle to defeat the wishes of the people by counting in GRANT after the fashion of manufacturing officials in many of the Southern States may cause an internicine struggle of short duration. This is among the possibilities but not very probable. Turning to Europe we find that the fire and the gunpowder are in closer proximity, and so many hands are reaching forth to bring them together that it is difficult to determine which will first succeed. Strong as may be the desire among good men on all sides to maintain the peace it is yet evident that there must speedily follow a great confflict. France is in a position to precipitate a general European war at any moment, and she is undoubtly nerving herself for the dreadful confflict. Republican France is panting for revenge, and eager to repeat those pages of history in which are recorded the achievments of her citizen Generals. She may no longer have the blood thirsty element that honored ROBESPIERRE and MARAT, but she has the courage and chivalry that less than a half century ago filled all Europe with terror. Wakened by the imbecile second empire she was speedily crushed by the armies of the Germanic Confederation. Nerved by the inspiration of free institutions she has recovered from the blow with marvelous rapidity, and instead of now being crushed and bankrupt nation predicted by some of the ablest statesmen she is already powerful and rich, and prepares for the next struggle with a calm courage that sends terror to the hearts of her conquerors. But the relations between the nations of Europe are now so delicate that the next struggle between the Teuton and the GAUL is likely to bring on a general war. The nervous trepidation displayed by the great powers recently evinced by their prompt and anxious offers of friendly intermediation shows that the sovereigns are by no means anxious to start in on a doubtful question.

There are reasons too, why the European governments should at once fan the flame of natural hatred, and yet fear the actual contest. Republicanism has been making rapid progress in Europe in the last half century. The excesses of the newly liberated Frenchmen ere the first Napolion usurped the empire have ceased to alarm mankind, while the profound effect of the maintenance of free institutions in the United States under the most trying ordeal has added to the desire for self government which must naturally grow with the enlightenment of the masses. Europe has brought forth two republics in the last five years. If that erected in unfortunate Spain has fallen, the one in France is growing stancher every day, and bids fair to be permanent. If Frenchmen truly love liberty they will so conduct themselves as to gain the support of all lovers of freedom throughout the world, and thus destroy the power of the crowned heads to perfect an alliance against their free institutions. England is growing more Democratic every year. The numerous successful strikes in almost every branch of industry of the last few years indicate the silent approval of the masses. The people are growing more conscious of their power and royalty is becoming more odious, while the authority of the nobility is decreasing. In Germany we also find the principles of democracy taking deep root. Bismarck exhibits slavish subserviency to King William only to impress the people with love of monarchy. Blinded by the brilliant achievements of the Prussian armies and excited by the religious crusade the wiley prime minister has inaugurated, the intelligent and freedom loving people of the Germanic Confederation only await a more auspicious occasion to begin the work of regeneration. That they are neither happy nor contented is indicated by the enormous emigration to the New World. The hundreds of thousands of enfranchized Germans in the United States are sending back the lessons of freedom to their brethern in the Faderland and these lessons are taking deep root.

May it not be then the next great conflict in Europe will be followed by gigantic revolutions and sudden change in the government of the leading powers. May it not be that the people will be taught to feel their strength and having drank of each others blood will turn upon their masters and tear them to pieces. It is certain that until republics have taken the place of the monarchies of the Old world there will not be a general disarmament. When the people rule they will quickly discover the danger and the folly of keeping from three to to six millions idle soldiers to be supported from the labors of the rest of the community, and thus will pass away the greatest curse of modern times. Freedom is baptised iu blood and born amid the clash of arms.

THE HERALD has received many words of praise and commendation on the fair, impartial yet effective policy it pursued during the campaign just closed. We are pleased to know that our course meets the approval of our friends. From the opening to the closing of the campaign the HERALD'S columns contained but one political paragraph the appearance of which we regret. That was the statement that the Independent nominee for District Attorney, Mr. WHITE, could only claim a residence of seven months in the State. Our informant was in error and should have said in the county in place of the State. We were informed of the mistake by Dr. RICHARDSON and intended to make the correction but the memorandum was mislaid and the matter escaped our memory until Mr. WHITE attacked the paper from the stump and we were then human enough to award him the task of explaining the matter himself. Still we acknowledge to having done Mr. WHITE a slight injustice but we trust the fact that our mistake furnished him with a text for a speech will induce him to feel as kindly toward us as we do toward him. For the rest we have nothing to regret and we drop the election with the kindliest regard for those we have opposed as well as those we have supported.

THE Marysville Appeal says: "we have met the Democrats and we are no where."

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—At midnight the count had compassed 17,000 ballots. The prospects are that the Democrats will carry everything in the city. The last reports gave Bryant 444 in advance of Clayton. Ellis now leads Crowley 275 votes. Badlam, it is conceded, will be our next Assessor, and there appears every likelihood that Reynolds will win for County Clerk. Nunan is maintaining his lead for Sheriff. The race is close between Bolander and Denman and the same may be said for the contestants for the District Attorneyship.

Last night police found a man lying in a fit on Montgomery street, and took him to the city prison for treatment, where he had a succession of attacks during the night. In the morning he was taken before the Commissioners of Lunacy to be examined as to his sanity. He suddenly died while in the Commissionres' room. His name was Thomas Boodburn and he was about fifty years of age. It is thought that he was a victim of alcoholic drink.

In this evening's Bulletin will appear a statement, authorized by D. O. Mills, acting manager of the Bank of California, to the effect that the defalcation of the late President of the Bank of California will amount to between three and four million dollars, and that an over issue of stock of the bank has been discovered, though the amount is not yet stated. It is not supposed that this will in any way affect the arrangements now being made for the re-opening of the bank, as there has evinently been some knowledge in the matter in possession of the Directors for some days past, though probably of too indefiite a nature to warrant any statement in the premises.

The Superintendent of the Mint today corrects the rumor that the Bank of California is indebted to the Mint. On the contrary the Mint owes the bank about $125,000. The bank has been doing the refining for the Mint and in that way the indebtedness arose.

There is nothing new in financial circles this morning, business proceeding as usual and confidence seems restored. It is expected that $200,000 will be transferred from the Treasury to the National Gold Bank and Trust Company to-day, and that the Bank will open in a few days.

The city election returns are coming in slowly. The race is still undecided between Clayton and Bryant. Badlam is elected and Ellis is now ahead of Crowley. From the state of the count it will not be completed for several days, but the result is assured.

Michael Reese, who is in the habit of swimming where Ralston was drowned, said in his testimony that a strong current exists where Mr. Ralston was swimming which once carried Mr. Reese under. Mr. Ralston was ignorant of this danger, and the theory now is general that, in the excitement caused by the recent events, he swam, without thinking of the distance, until he was drawn into the current and could not extricate himself.

Stocks are a trifle more active to-day on the street, nearly all transactions besng for cash. Prices are about the aame as yesterday, with a slightly upward tendency.

A New Telegraph Line.

SILVER CITY, Idaho, Sept. 4.—The Nevada & Northern Telegraph Company have completed their line to Boise City, Idaho, from this place. The people of Boise City are having a high old time over the result of telegraphic communication with the outside world. Congratulations were sent to Acting Gov. E. J. Curtis and C. W. Moon by Superintendent W. H. Pope and W. J. Hill, Editor Daily Avalanche. The operators are struggling hard to keep sober in the excitement. Hooray!

A Scrub Senator.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—Evening—It is now certain that Haymond is elected Senator by a small majority not to exceed twenty-two. The Republicans have elected nine county officers, the Democrats two, and the Independents two- Papper and Clunic are elected to the Assemby, with the third seat in doubt between Patterson and Brigs, both Democrats. The votes for Governor will not vary twenty from these figures: Irwin 3050, Bidwell 1400, Phelps 1400.

EASTERN NEWS.

The Negro Insurrectionists.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 4.—The grand jury of Washington county before whom the alleged insurrectionists have been on trial, discharged remaining prisoners and commend judge and counsel for their faithful performanee of duty. Judge Johnson then addressed the grand jury and citizens, advising the latter to acquiesce with the decision of the jury, and commending the people for the conservative and law abiding course pursued. All prisoners not tried were discharged and the court adjourned.

The Direct Cable.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The officers of the direct Cable of this City, state that the steamship Faraday is about two hundred miles from New Foundland, and in communication with Rye Beach. She sailed from England to repair the break in the cable, on the 13th of August, and since her arrival off the coast of New Foundland the weather has been very unfavorable for operations, a heavy see running almost continually, compelling the Faraday to remain idle several days. The weather for two days, however, was clear and pleasant; and during this time the most difficult portion of the work has been accomplished. The fanlt in the cable was discovered in the Eastern end; but the fault on the Western or American end was cut out and communication established with Rye Beach. The Eastern end is buried about seven miles from where the Faraday now lays, and it was expected that with fair weather to-day and to-morrow, the Eastern and Western ends would be spliced and the cable placed in complete working order. The delay in completing the repairs is owing to the bad weather; but the announcement that the final connection is made is true. The officials of the Company speak in high praise of the important work done by the Faraday during the two days of calm weather.

Associated Press Falsehoods.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—To-day's advices by Associated Press, in reference to the Bank of California, are, for the first time, in conformity with truth. Now that the papers are at hand, and people can read for themselves of the case, there is a feeling of disgust at ihe manner in which the agent of the Associated Press used that machine for the purpose of attacking prominent gentlemen of San Francisco, and it is probable that the agent will be asked to resign or be discharged.

Some time during the night his cries attracted attention, and he was found with his night clothes burned to cinders and his body so seriously injured that he died, after suffering greatly.

Chinese News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—A special from London says: The Chinese military operations are suspended. A body of returned soldiers from Formosa soon after landing at Choochow assaulted an American lady and gentleman with great violence, severely bruising both. An investigation is going on by the U. S. Consul.

The Chinese Government is prepared to send diplomatic representatives to the leading western nations.

Mr. Congdon, a Chicago Black Hills explorer, has returned to that city disgusted. He says not a single man has ever brought back one hundred dollars from that region, and that Boulder county, Colorado, is a much better field for operations. The highest assay that the Superintendent of the Chicago Swansea Smelting Works has succeeded in getting from selected Black Hills ore was $75, against $240 for the Colorado ore.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.

A PROMINENT NEW YORK PHYSICIAN lately complained to Dundas Dick & Co. about their Sandalwood Oil Capsules, stating that sometimes they cured miraculously, but that a patient of his had taken them without effect. On being informed that several imitations were sold, he inquired and found his patient HAD NOT BEEN TAKING Dundas Dick & Co.'s.

What happened to this physician may have happened to others, and Dundas Dick & Co. take this method of protecting physicians, druggists and themselves, and preventing OIL OF SANDALWOOD from coming into disrepute.

Physicians who once prescribe the Capsules will continue to do so, for they contain the PURE OIL in the BEST AND CHEAPEST form.

Dundas Dick & Co. use more Oil of Sandalwood than all the wholesale and retail druggists and perfumers in the United States combined, and this is the sole reason why the PURE OIL is sold cheaper in their Capsules than in any other form.

OIL OF SANDALWOOD is fast superseding every other remedy, sixty Capsules ONLY being required to insure a safe and certain cure in six or eight days. From no other remedy can this result be had.

DUNDAS DICK & CO'S SOFT CAPSULES solve the problem, long considered by eminent physicians, of how to avoid the nausea and disgust experienced in swallowing, which are well known to detract from, if not destroy, the good effects of many valuable remedies.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.—Castor Oil and many other nauseous medicines can be taken easily and safely in DUNDAS DICK & CO'S SOFT CAPSULES. NO TASTE. NO SMELL.

☞ These were the only Capsules admitted to the last Paris Exposition.

The drayman who hauled printing material to the depot for F. Glancey, can get his pay by calling on W. H. Williams.

There were five prisoners before Mayor Beaudry yesterday morning, who contributed to the City as an evidence of their repentance.

The schooner Serena Thayer, Capt. Johnson, arrived yesterday at Wilmington with 375,000 feet of lumber for Perry, Woodworth & Co.

Mr. Johnson, editor of the Santa Barbara Press, was assaulted and badly beaten on election day by Mayor Richards and other roughs. Our newspaper war here was only of a paper character—the editors never coming to apostolic blows and knocks.

Our friend, Mr. F. H. Angell, was united in the holy bonds of wedlock yesterday, at Florence, with Miss Libbie Faris. We congratulate him and hope that married life may be to him a Paradise. At least we are justified in expecting his house to be a home of Angells.

The complimentary benefit to Professor A. Fischer, last night at Turn Verein Hall was a grand success. The house was crowded and the musical entertainment of a high order. The re-appearance of Madame Franzini and Sig. Marra on the stage was an agreeable surprise to their many friends and they were enthusiastically welcomed. Of Prof. Fischer's part in the performance we can not say too much, and the musical volunteers, Mad. Knell, Profs. Bethe, Arevalo, Knell and Falkenau and Messrs. E. Fischer, Mendel Meyer, and Master Seebold covered themselves with new honor. The concert was above the average standard, and alike flattering to the beneficiary and creditable to those taking part.

It is reported from Madrid that General Dorregary has escaped into Navarre.

ELECTION DAY.

MORNING.

The morn was gently breaking,
  With a sky serene and clear.
Full many a heart was quaking
  With the agony of fear.

The polls were opened early,
  And the voting slow began,
With sour looks and surly,
  The boys commenced to plan.

The Independents came prepared,
  To wage a desperate fight.
They vowed to all they were not scared,
  For they were men of might.

They charged upon the polls in force,
  As Greeks would charge a wall,
With men convened from every source,
  They saw their victims fall.

Along their ranks you heard them prate
  As hastening to the fray,
"These fares and freights and water rates
  We swear we'll never pay."

EVENING.

The breeze was gently starting,
  And the sun was sinking low,
Sworn friends were sadly parting
  With footsteps tired and slow.

There were many anxious faces,
  There were many throbbing hearts,
Standing firmly at their places
  Where they'd nobly done their parts.

The contest was a firm one.
  Hot waged on every side,
By many an Independent son,
  Who tried to stem the tide.

Begrimed their tired workers,
  Saw all their strong-holds fall.
They drove the sulky lurkers,
  As cattle from the stall.

But the cause of Truth was mighty,
  All their efforts were in vain,
The hopes they nursed were flighty,
  And only gave them pain.

In solid ranks, the voters
  Came up unto the polls,
Democracy promoters,
  They voted for their souls.

As the storm king sweeps the ocean,
  As truth does crush a lie,
We crushed in wild commotion,
  This Independent cry.

As the leaves are swept in Autumn,
  By the fierce wind's angry call,
We captured and we caught 'em,
  Our Congressmen and all.

Wilmington Items.

[From the Enterprise.]

The S. P. R. R. Company are pushing forward the Anaheim extension of their road to Santa Ana, and have a large force of men at work on the grade.

Senator, Thursday, 200 tons of freight and 60 passengers.

We find the following items in the Anaheim Gazette. of the 13th:

Messrs. Hammel & Denker have bought three lots on the Kuchel estate—two adjoining Calisher's store and one in the rear. The price paid, we believe, was $2,500. The purchasers intend to immediately commence building a brick structure to be used for general stores.

The First Presbyterian Church of Anaheim has of late received some very valuable donations, which were duly noted in our columns. We take pleasure in again recording two further donations. Rev. Wm. Howell Taylor, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who recently occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian Chuich for two Sabbaths, instead of accepting any remuneration therefor, generously gave twenty dollars towards purchasing hymn-books for the use of strangers visiting the church. Through the influence of a young lady resident of Anaheim, handsome communion services from friends in the East were obtained last summer. One service was presented to the church in Anaheim, and the other to the church in Orange.

OFFICE OF CHARLOTTE CONSOLIDATED Gold Mining Co.—The property of this Company, after considerable development, has yielded returns beyond their expectations, and every indication thus far points to a still more valuable result. The various and reported assays and the result by arastra proves that there is ore yielding from $30 to $400 per ton, and the Company feel themselves watranted in the statement that these mines are permanent and valuable ledges. In view of those facts they have authorized the sale of a very limited amount of stock, for working capital, at $5 per share. The development of the property will inevitably result in the employment of a number of men in the district in which they are situated, and in the end build up a camp of no inconsiderable size, the supplies for which must be drawn from our midst. The Directors feel themselves justified in recommending this stock to the confidence of the business men as well as to the general community of Los Angeles.

Stock can be obtained of the Treasurer, Mr. C. F. Heinzeman, or of the Secretary at the office of the Company, or by application to Messrs. Barbee & Gates, Brokers, 8½ Commercial street.

A $1.50 BOOK FOR 10 CENTS.

THE LAKESIDE LIBRARY

IS PUBLISHED SEMI-MONTHLY and each issue contains a COMPLETE NOVEL by one of the great authors of the world, as Charles Reade, Dickens, Scott, Anthony Trollope, Jules Verne, etc. The COMPLETION of long and important novels in a SINGLE ISSUE is the most unique and valuable feature yet introduced into the periodical literature of the day, and is peculiar to THE LAKESIDE LIBRARY.

Subscriptions are received for 24 numbers (one year), price $2 15; or for 12 numbers (six months), price $1 10; or for 6 numbers (three months), on trial, 55 cents. Single copies, postpaid, 12 cents (except Nos. 9 & 10 and 14 & 15—25 cents). Sample pages sent FREE on application.

Our next issue, No. 17, ready this day, contains:

KATERFELTO, By Major J. G. Whyte-Melville

KATERFELTO is the best, because the most original of all Maj. WHYTE-MELVILLE'S stories. It is full of life, character and action. The KATERFELTO of the story is a splendid horse, whose performances surpass those of Dick Turpin's "Black Bess." It is undoubtedly one of the most fascinating romances we have read since—we know not when or where.—The Press (DR. SHELTON MACKENZIE).

☞This is really a REMARKABLE BOOK—one of the very best published for years. Price ONLY TEN CENTS; by mail ONLY TWELVE CENTS. Regular price, $1 25. We particularly urge you to get this number, as a sample of a NEW IDEA in the CHEAP PRINTING of GOOD BOOKS.

No. 19—MAURICE DERING, by the famous author of "Guy Livingstone." Price, 10 cts.; by mail, 12 cts. Regular price, $1 25. Brilliant and fascinating. The reader is held in ecstacy.—London Times.

Nos. 14 & 15.—20,000 LEAGUES UNDER THE SEAS, by JULES VERNE. An intensely interesting account of a voyage of 60,000 mires UNDER the ocean! Price, only TWENTY CENTS; by mail, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. ☞Regular price, $4.00.☜

Nos. 9 & 10.—THE LAW AND THE LADY, by WILKIE COLLINS. This famous author's last and greatest work. Price only TWENTY CENTS; by mail TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. ☞Regular price, $1.25. A splendid book.

The wonderful cheapness of our books leads many to fear it is a humbug. We would refer them to the editor of this paper who has a sample copy, or specimen pages will be sent FREE.

They are well-printed and remarkably low-priced editions of Standard Books, by the best authors, and merit the attention of every reader. ☞Buy a sample copy. Catalogues of 20 books free. A new book added every two weeks.☜

BALLESTEROS TRACT,

Between the Aliso Mills and the bridge, over the Los Angeles river. These lots constitute very desirable property and will be sold cheap. Trees and Vines on nearly all of these lots.

As I sell only my own property and therefore have no commissions to pay, I can afford to give better bargains than those who do.

Persons desirous of purchasing city property will do well to call and examine the above lands before buying elsewhere.
